2019 was my first year as president of the Federal Association. Every year as a member of the Order, regardless of what role I have served in, has been helpful for learning the history and customs of the Federal Association, for becoming better acquainted with our members, and for witnessing our growth over the years. Now as president, I understand better how the day-to-day administration takes place, working with our office staff to move us through the events of the year, and keeping us current with the Grand Magistracy. Also, through a travel schedule that kept me on the road for 34 weeks, I have visited the members and experienced the life and works of as many of our regions as possible. While this was a busy year, it was very rewarding.

I also attended well-done regional retreats in Chicago and Jacksonville. More and more of our regions are offering retreats each year. Speaking from experience, these provide excellent opportunities for quiet time, praying together, socializing, and building a sense of community life. Through various year-round offerings we are given many opportunities to take advantage of convenient dates, locations, and different chaplains. All these experiences help to deepen our personal sanctification, helping each of us to express the Order's charism in our everyday lives.

This past year I represented the Federal Association at my first meeting of international association presidents in Budapest. Besides receiving an in-depth orientation on the state of the Order, we delegates were chosen for the Chapter General to elect a new Sovereign Council. Only one North American president was elected to participate in the Chapter General, and hopefully, that is not a new trend, as our representation in the Chapter General is so important. During the year, there were five additional opportunities to meet with the American presidents. In these meetings there has been a positive desire to act together, demonstrate unity, and share best practices in matters of common interest.

One of the highlights of last year was joining members in a pilgrimage to the Holy Land led by Ambassador Michèle Bowe. This included an orientation to the early years of the Order, along with the opportunity to see and feel the places where Jesus lived and taught during his public life. The pilgrimage also included a moving visit to Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem, one of our most impressive signature works. The time we were given to be "gowned-up" in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit was something I will always remember. Witnessing a work of the Order such as this service to a large, needy population was a deep personal experience.

Pilgrimages bring us together; and accompanying and serving the needs of pilgrims is one of our founding traditions. I attended both our 2019 Lourdes pilgrimage and the summer pilgrimage to Our Lady of Good Help in Champion, Wisconsin. While Lourdes and Champion are quite different, each has wonderful qualities that we can experience. We all have challenges making time for these spiritual "time-outs", but I have never heard of anyone who did not appreciate the experience and the time together.

The officers and members of our Board of Directors and committees all worked very well together to provide another great year for our Federal Association, as you will see in the pages that follow. I would like to thank each of them for the time and energy given to their respective missions. The same can be said about our excellent and dedicated office staff under the direction of Deacon Michael Stankewicz. Thank you to everyone for working together with me to make us a better association in providing our hands-on service to the sick, poor, and incarcerated. We do most everything well, always searching for ways we can do things better, while remaining ever mindful of the call to mirror the Gospel message among ourselves and to those we serve. Most impressively, wherever we are, we do what we do prayerfully, which can only serve to strengthen our individual faith foundations and our life in this religious community. Living our lives with this attitude, and forgetful of ourselves, we cannot help but be successful in our mission. I thank each of you for living your commitment and for your generous support.

I ask you to keep me in your prayers so that I may continue to be given the grace to carry out God's work as he wills it through the fine members of this association. I remember all of you in my prayers, daily.

Spiritual Life

Vice President's Report on Spirituality

Craig M. Jarchow, KMOB, Vice President

The mission of the Order of Malta since its founding more than 900 years ago is “the promotion of the glory of God through the sanctification of its Members, service to the faith and to the Holy Father, and assistance to one’s neighbour” (Constitutional Charter §2(1)). And so it is with the Federal Association.

This mission is conveyed succinctly via the twin elements of the Order’s charism: “Tuitio Fidei” (the preservation, protection, and witness of the faith) and “Obsequium Pauperum” (the service to the sick and the poor).

In the Order of Malta’s Regulations and Commentary, the “Spiritual Life” section (§3(3)) is remarkably concrete in its guidance regarding spiritual activities in the Order: “It is the task of the Priors, Subpriors and Associations to provide appropriate theological and spiritual formation for their Members in the context of an annual programme.”

The Federal Association, during its 2019 reporting year, was in conformance with this guidance and, thanks to the workings of the Holy Spirit and many dedicated knights, dames, and volunteers, has surpassed all reasonable plans in this regard.

The year began with the Spirituality Committee, led by Barbara Patocka, publishing a set of monthly modules, entitled “Called by the Lord.” As noted by Barbara in her introduction to this series, 2019 was “...a year when we focus on the profound reality that we, both as individuals and as a religious order, are called by the Lord.”

The modules dealt with topics such as Deepening Our Prayer, Spirituality and Service, Lent, Being With Jesus in the Passion, Pilgrimage and Retreat, Spirituality and Everyday Life, Eucharist, Guided by the Malta Cross and Beatitudes, Tuitio Fidei et Obsequium Pauperum, Belonging to a Religious Order, Gratitude, and Advent.

One particularly moving passage, among the many in “Called by the Lord,” was a reminder of why so many of us are members of the Order of Malta, particularly of the Federal Association:

In our Order we do not live in monasteries or convents. We live in the world. However, we do belong to a religious order, to a community that helps us work out our salvation. We fulfill our commitment to the Order together with our sisters and brothers in the Order through our prayer life and our works. We work together—on the Lourdes pilgrimage, visiting or writing to prisoners, assisting at L’Arche, visiting the sick, feeding the poor. We pray for and with each other, especially when we attend Mass together. We strive to glorify God through our lives in the Order.

The monthly modules were used extensively in the hospitaller regions for reflection and discussion among members and candidates.

Contributors to this series were current and former members of the Spirituality Committee, including Shep Abell, Hugh Dempsey, John Hoy, Don Patteson, Cindi Salazar, Connie Silvaggio, Tony Sorgi, and Chip Souser.

The Defense of the Faith Committee, led by Ed Damich, also published a series of modules in 2019 for discussion and reflection by the members of the Federal Association. Essays dealing with end-of-life decisions covered such topics as The Nature of Suffering, Is the Life of One Who Suffers Still ‘Good?’; End of Life Decisions in Light of the Catholic Understanding of the Whole Person - Body and Soul; Ordinary and Extraordinary Means of Preserving Life; Assisted Suicide, Euthanasia, and the Slippery Slope; and End of Life Care Instructions.

Current and former members of the Defense of the Faith Committee contributed to the series, including Donald Brey, Charles Cornelio, Lisa Howard, Daniel Krieger, John Lenczowski, Cindi Salazar, John Sauder, Bill Saunders, Bill Thierfelder, and Tom Wessels.

The end-of-life essays were bound into a single volume that was distributed during the Defense of the Faith presentation given by Professor John Keown at the Federal Association’s annual meeting. Professor Keown, who is the Rose F. Kennedy Professor of Christian Ethics at the Kennedy Institute of Ethics at Georgetown University, delivered a talk entitled “Euthanasia, Ethics and Public Policy: An Argument Against Legalization.” This talk was as moving as it was informative. In his remarks, Professor Keown provided a summary of the arguments for and against euthanasia and assisted suicide. Ultimately, by appealing to the inviolability of human life and to the innate goodness of the human person, Professor Keown argued that it should be possible to reverse the seemingly inexorable trend toward legalization of physician-assisted suicide.

In addition to the Defense of the Faith presentation at the annual meeting, several related presentations were held in the hospitaller regions, including in Lancaster, Syracuse, Central Carolina, and Atlanta.

The Federal Association’s Formation Committee, led by Cara Aghajanian, also had a busy and consequential year in 2019. The committee revamped the formation process, placing more emphasis on the critical role played by the sponsors of new candidates. As part of this effort, the committee rewrote the guidebooks for both candidates and sponsors, and revised the agenda and materials for the annual Formation Weekend held in Washington, DC. Contributors to this substantial undertaking were current and former members of the Defense of the Faith Committee, including Brandon Brown, Taffy Hewitt, Charles Letteer, Alexandra Milos, Chris Murphy, Marlana Ottinger, Randall Rainey, Robert Simmons, Chip Souser, and Dorothy Zolandz.

As the Holy Father, Pope Francis, has reminded us: “Openness to God makes us open towards the marginalized of this world, and gives us the courage to leave the confines of our own security and comfort to become bruised, hurting and dirty as we joyfully approach the suffering other in a spirit of solidarity.” Indeed, through its continued focus on spirituality, the Federal Association surely has increased its members’ openness to God and thereby enhanced our efforts to serve our lords the poor and the sick.

Our Lady of Philermo, Pray for Us.

2019 Hospitaller Report

Patrick Monaghan, KMOB, Association Hospitaller

The year 2019 was busy and productive for the Federal Association. With 29 established regions and four currently in development, our membership at year-end totals nearly 1,100 knights and dames, and approximately 350 auxiliary and volunteers.

In addition to two full-day, in-person hospitaller meetings during Formation Weekend and Investiture Weekend, two additional teleconferences were held. The in-person meetings featured reports from Federal Association officers and numerous committee chairs. There were also presentations and discussions covering best demonstrated practices by various regional hospitallers. Our audio meetings were more focused on topics of current interest.

As has been our practice, each region is tasked with addressing: the spirituality of our members; continuing hands-on support of the sick and poor; and development and formation of new members and of our current members.

Spirituality of Our Members

Each region is expected to host a monthly First Friday or First Saturday Mass as well as annually the St. John's Feast Day Mass, a Mass for the Sanctity of Life and a Mass for Deceased Members.

In addition, most regions, with the aid of their chaplains, conduct Lenten and Advent days or evenings of reflection and many host a local mini-retreat.

With the strong support of our Spirituality Committee and Defense of the Faith Committee, many regions are hosting programs for their members, volunteers and the broader Catholic community.

Hospitaller Projects

Service to the poor and sick continues as a major focus of our regions. As of year-end, 148 projects—almost 4.5 per region—are served by more than 27,000 hours of annual service by our members and volunteers.

Regional Growth & Development

A prime initiative was begun late in 2018 to recruit new members within our regions. We are continuing to see new candidates joining our ranks as efforts to attract potential knights, dames and auxiliary are made through:

- member awareness and involvement;
- hospitaller designee or committee charged with the development tasks;
- receptions and presentations to potential candidates; and
- small group or one-on-one meetings.

Additionally, the importance of the formation and discernment process for those pursuing membership as well as current members has been emphasized.

In Summary

Always we ask the questions of ourselves and our regions: What are we doing well? What can we do better? The answer somehow comes back to: striving to achieve Christian perfection.

2019 Treasurer's Report

Peter Scudner, KM, Association Treasurer

I am pleased to report that the Federal Association had positive financial results in 2019 as a result of prudent expense management and successful fundraising. This presentation is an excerpt from the audited financial statements. The presentation shows an overview of our financial activities for the year and includes some adjustments to present the information more clearly.*

The Federal Association's staff managed our expenses and the endowment campaign effectively, resulting in net income of over $1.6 million. This includes investment gains of over $1 million, a one-time accounting adjustment for lifetime dues amounting to more than $300,000, and administrative savings offset by an overage on the Investiture weekend. The administrative reserves were over $500,000 at year-end, which provided a financial cushion during the uncertainties of 2020. Year-end investment accounts were approximately $7.2 million, and with $2.2 million in the Blessed Gerard Fund and $4 million in the Lourdes Endowment.

The Federal Association had expenses for the year of approximately $3.4 million. An effort is made to match the sources of revenue to the relevant expense items. For example, we spent approximately $1.5 million to manage the office and make assessment payments to Rome, which is paid for by dues of approximately $1.7 million. The other major expense items are the Lourdes Pilgrimage, which costs approximately $1 million and is paid for by fees and donations and grants to regional and international projects, which are funded by the Annual Stewardship Appeal of approximately $800,000. The balance is spent on Investiture and other spiritual and domestic activities.

Additional details are available in our audited financial statements, accessible on the Federal Association website.

New Members Welcomed at Investiture Weekend

Christine A. Kettmer, DM, Investiture Committee Chair

During the weekend of September 27-28, 2019, nearly 50 new members were invested into the Federal Association. Similar to previous years, several of the Investiture activities occurred at the historic Mayflower Hotel and Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle in Washington, DC.

The weekend commenced on Friday with the annual members meeting and luncheon, where members of the Board of Directors, Fra' Thomas N. Mulligan, Peter Scudner, Patrick Monaghan III, and Robert Hutton presented the respective reports of the president, treasurer, hospitaller, and chancellor. Later that afternoon, Professor John Keown delivered the Defense of the Faith address about end-of-life issues, followed by a lovely cocktail reception.

On Saturday morning at St Matthew's, the newly installed Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory celebrated the Investiture Mass and Ceremony. His Eminence had most recently served as archbishop in the Diocese of Atlanta before being appointed the seventh archbishop in the Archdiocese of Washington.

At the Investiture Mass, the new members promised to faithfully call on the name of God, always bear witness to the Catholic faith, and lead their lives in accordance with the teachings of the Church. They declared themselves ready to care for our lords the sick and poor, and to obey the Constitution, statutes and Rule of the Order with fidelity and diligence.

Under the direction of Jeffery D Ludwig, KM, the Investiture Mass master of ceremonies, and Msgr. James D. Watkins, magistral chaplain and ecclesiastical master of ceremonies, the Solemn Liturgy of Investiture was a moving event.

Mary "Ceil" Malphrus, a member of the Class of 2019, shared her enthusiasm on becoming a dame. "Being invested into the Order of Malta has enriched my spiritual life through the many opportunities presented to share our faith and learn from my fellow members," she said. "The charitable works of the Order have challenged me to serve the needs of not only our local neighbors, but also our brothers and sisters in other countries. I treasure the many friends I have made through the Order as well."

After the Mass concluded, the newly installed knights and dames, along with their families and friends, enjoyed the Investiture luncheon back at the Mayflower Hotel. There, Fra' Thomas N. Mulligan presented Tricia Lloyd and Robert Branand with the President's Awards for their contributions and dedication to the Order's mission and programs.

On Saturday evening, at the stunning Library of Congress, nearly 300 guests enjoyed the weekend's culminating event, the Gala Reception and Annual Dinner. Members and their guests continued the celebrations in welcoming the Class of 2019 and recognized accomplishments from the past year.

Among the evening's highlights was the distribution of the pro Merito Melitensi awards to Joan Cincotta, Craig Jarchow, Hugh Dempsey, John F.X. Reilly, Jeffrey D. Ludwig, Joseph A. Tronco, and Kimberly Hanna. The Order's pro Merito Melitensi award is given as a sign of appreciation to individuals who have demonstrated sustained and extraordinary work in the Order and Federal Association over many years.

The Investiture Committee would like to recognize the dedication of so many individuals who helped make this weekend a success. A tremendous thank you to all of the volunteers, team members and staff, including Peter-Anthony Pappas, for his ongoing coordination with the hotel; Hugh Dempsey, and Marlana Ottinger, for the beautiful Gala Reception and Annual Dinner; Morgan Baker, financial coordinator and program manager, for her exquisite attention to details; Deacon Michael Stankewicz, for his continual collaboration and guidance; and Fra' Thomas N. Mulligan, for his leadership and support.

Lourdes Pilgrimage-2019

Elizabeth Stoner, DM

Upon returning from the Lourdes pilgrimage, it takes a while to unpack. It's not just the suitcases, souvenirs, and laundry. We bring home joy, friendships, and spiritual renewal.

Throughout this most recent pilgrimage that concluded in early May 2019, we were reminded in many homilies and discussions that when Mary appeared to St. Bernadette in 1858, the area that is now the Grotto was once the town trash dump. We bring our emotions, worries, fears with us to the Grotto. And we leave them there, lightening the burden and making space for joy. It is the joy we experience through helping one another, praying with and for one another, sharing meals, sharing the pilgrimage.

The teams serving the malades submitted pictures that were posted on Facebook to keep followers up to date on pilgrimage happenings.

Msgr. Anthony Marcaccio of Greensboro, North Carolina helped commence our time in Lourdes by leading the pilgrimage candle lighting after the Mass in the Rosary Basilica. Malades added their names on the candle, which was then kept burning in the candle case for pilgrims to visit throughout our pilgrimage.

The weather was a little rainy and cold Friday morning for the baths but cleared a bit for the afternoon team meetings and orientation discussion with Shep Abell of Montgomery County, Maryland.

At the Grotto Mass, which is always a special event, Cardinal Timothy Dolan, the archbishop of New York, was the main celebrant. There, the granddaughter of Kip Rolland of Dallas received her first Communion.

Malades and companions gave rave reviews of the lunch discussions led by our chaplains. And the youth lunch offered pizza, french fries, ice cream, and fun for young pilgrims from all teams.

The Eucharistic Procession and Adoration gave us a glimpse of fellow pilgrims from 45 countries represented in international pilgrimage. Mary told St. Bernadette that we should come in procession, and we heeded those instructions once again with a candlelight procession Sunday evening, joining with the American and Western associations.

The International Mass on Sunday morning typically provides an example of one, universal Church. This year was no different, with a sea of malades from many countries, peppered with sections of knights and dames in robes and capes.

The countryside tour was one of the highlights of this year's pilgrimage, with Mass at Eglise Notre-Dame de l'Assomption in Cauterets, followed by lunch in the town square and event space. Derek Ritzel of Greensboro, North Carolina presented Craig Jarchow of Houston with a big thank-you cake for his six years serving as pilgrimage chair. After lunch, many pilgrims and children of all ages enjoyed the carousel, playground, and putt-putt course.

No countryside tour would be complete without a rousing talent show featuring many of our pilgrims, malades, and companions. The performances continued in the Tangerine Lounge of the hotel upon returning from the countryside.

Tuesday's schedule allowed for some free time after the farewell Mass and final blessing in the Domaine. Many pilgrims and malades took advantage of the time to light candles, pay a final visit to the Grotto, purchase Mass cards, and even indulge in a little shopping on the walk back from visiting the Cachot, where St. Bernadette lived as a child with her family.

While boarding the charter flight back to BWI Airport, the joy of each pilgrim was palpable.

A huge thank you to the Lourdes Committee, the team leaders, the medical team, and association leadership for such a fantastic pilgrimage!

Now that we're stateside, we keep our beloved malades in our prayers, review the pictures, and aim to share the joy of the pilgrimage with each person we encounter through the coming year.

With the founding of the Southern Association of the Order of Malta in 1974, renamed Federal Association in 1985, the Order assumed a new prominence in the Catholic life of the nation's capital. Archbishop William Baum, who had become the second resident archbishop of Washington the previous year, encouraged William H. G. FitzGerald, then a member of the American Association, to seek approval from the Grand Magistracy in Rome to establish a new association of the Order based in Washington.

Upon approval, the archbishop became the first conventual chaplain, and Bill FitzGerald the first president, of the Federal Association. Msgr. W. Louis Quinn, the newly appointed rector of the Cathedral of Saint Matthew the Apostle, joined as the first magistral chaplain of the association, assigned by the archbishop to be the chaplain to the Board of Directors, a position he would hold for over 30 years.

Last year, the Federal Association commemorated the centenary of Msgr. Quinn's birth.

William Louis Quinn was born in Baltimore on May 27, 1919. He grew up there in a devout Catholic family, with one of his sisters becoming a nun. Early in life, he came to understand that he had a vocation to the priesthood, which he wished to pursue after high school. His uncle, a priest of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, insisted that he not enter the seminary until he had graduated from college. Consequently, he matriculated at Loyola College where he studied under the eminent historian, Professor Edward A. Doehler, who later would become one of the initial knights from the Baltimore Region.

Following his graduation from Saint Mary's Seminary and University, he was ordained by Bishop John M. McNamara, auxiliary bishop of Washington, on March 17, 1945. His first assignment was as a curate at Saint Matthew's Cathedral, where he remained for 15 years. In 1960 Archbishop Patrick O'Boyle appointed him the founding pastor of Holy Cross Parish in Garrett Park, Maryland. He organized and built the new parish into a thriving Catholic community in the suburbs. In 1968, he was transferred to the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament in the Chevy Chase, during which time Pope Paul VI named him a monsignor. There he undertook implementing the liturgical changes following the Second Vatican Council until his return in 1974 to Saint Matthew's as rector, a position he held for 21 years.

As the Federal Association grew, Msgr. Quinn became a familiar presence in the newly emerging regions from his frequent visits in support of their programs. He attended all meetings of the Board of Directors, many Lourdes committee sessions, as well as the annual pilgrimages, and he was the host for the Investiture at Saint Matthew's.

As rector of the Cathedral he undertook the refurbishment of the structure and set in motion plans for the construction of an office building adjoining the rectory. His proudest moment as rector came when he welcomed Pope John Paul II in 1979 during the first papal visit to Washington. The Holy Father opened his informal remarks from the balcony by saying he had been waiting to begin until Msgr. Quinn told him he could speak. Monsignor later would comment many times on the incident with his usual Irish sense of humor.

In 1995 the archdiocese, the cathedral parish, and the Federal Association celebrated the 50th anniversary of his priestly ordination. At the time, Pope John Paul II raised Monsignor to the rank of Protonotary Apostolic. That year he retired as rector and moved to Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in Bethesda, Maryland where he actively continued his priestly ministry, celebrated the sacrament of Confirmation in many parishes, and introduced Federal Association activities into the parish. He retired as the Federal Association's chaplain in 2008 when he was succeeded by Msgr. John Enzler, also a previous pastor of Blessed Sacrament.

Msgr. Quinn was a priest's priest, the model of the Good Shepherd among us. His guidance and continual work for the Federal Association were instrumental in its growth and development across the country. He was a prodigious letter writer, sending thousands of notes, thank-you messages, congratulatory greetings, and expressions of good will to countless individuals, always signing them, "fr. Quinn."

On March 18, 2010, Msgr. Quinn died at the age of 90. He was a beloved figure among the knights and dames of the Federal Association, indeed a Christian mentor to all who knew him. The Reverend Monsignor William Louis Quinn, P.A., May 27, 1919 – March 18, 2010. Requiescat in Pace.

I am happy to share a report on the work of the chaplains for the past year. This year, the Board of Directors has approved 14 new chaplains. They have joined a very select group of priests who care deeply about the Order of Malta and our members. There is good and bad news about our chaplains. The good news is that they have been selected because of their clear priestly spirit, servant leadership and their strong spirituality. The bad news is that because of those gifts, they are in constant demand, and many of them are balancing parish and diocesan responsibilities along with a regular and concerted commitment to Malta.

Don't be too disappointed when, because of their schedules and competencies, they are not always as present as you want them to be.

I can assure you, we did not say yes to this invitation to add another medal or title to our resumes. We want to help and to be present as often as possible for Malta Masses, spiritual direction, confessions, and guidance where necessary. I encourage our chaplains to do all they can, to become even more involved where they can. I would also ask this of all our members: please do not hesitate to ask. There is a saying: "When you want to get something done, ask a busy person." When there is a need, a service, or a request made directly to one of us, we promise to do all we can to say yes. We value our participation, your spirituality, and the inspiring way that you serve so many. We are here for you and want to be the best priests we can possibly be in service to our Church and the Order of Malta.

May God's blessings be upon you all.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Pilgrimage

Craig M. Jarchow, KMOB

Several members of the Federal Association attended the Western Association's annual pilgrimage to Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City in October. This pilgrimage is held in conjunction with the Mexican Association and is scheduled every year to coincide with the World Day of the Sick held at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The American Association and the Guatemalan Association also participated.

The Western Association's pilgrimage began two days prior to the World Day of the Sick. On the first day after our arrival, we toured the "new" Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in which St. Juan Diego's cactus-fiber tilma is preserved (miraculously) to this day, and we participated in the celebration of Holy Mass in the ornate "old" Basilica. After Mass, we assembled gift bags for orphaned girls, to be presented during a service project the following day. These gift bags were stocked with items brought by participants in their luggage and supplemented with goodies from the Mexican and the Guatemalan associations.

The service project was held at the Our Lady of Peace Orphanage in Mexico City. This orphanage is run by a vibrant order of nuns and serves girls who do not have families to care for them because of death among parents or guardians, financial hardship, or some sort of abuse. Volunteers from the Order of Malta painted a large outdoor retaining wall in the orphanage, painted benches, and worked in the kitchen. Once the work was completed, we shared a late lunch with the girls, the nuns, and other staff members. The gift bags assembled the previous day were awarded immediately after lunch. They were a big hit!

The Mass for the World Day of the Sick at the Basilica for Our Lady of Guadalupe was the highlight of the trip. The Mexican Association organizes this Mass, which is attended by approximately 12,000 faithful who are poor and sick. Some of these pilgrims walk for days to attend and camp out in tents in the main square outside the basilica. The Mexican Association organizes and pays for approximately 100 buses to transport malades to the Mass. They also hand out hundreds of bottles of Lourdes water.

Our pilgrimage culminated with a reception hosted by Don Adolfo Autrey Maza, who is the Consul General of Monaco to Mexico.

Participants in this pilgrimage could not help but be moved by the outpouring of faith among the thousands of malades attending the World Day of the Sick. The dedication of the Mexican Association, under the leadership of their hospitaller, Monica Cardenas Figueroa, and the nuns who serve the girls at Our Lady of Peace Orphanage, was at once humbling and uplifting. It was a small reminder of the monumental significance of the apparitions of Our Lady of Guadalupe in December 1531 to the spiritual trajectory of the Americas. As we exclaimed every morning during the pilgrimage: ¡Viva la Virgen de Guadalupe!

Thanks are due to our hosts, Michael Grace, president of the Western Association, as well as Jo Ann Vesco, chief of staff, and Michelle Navarro, pilgrimage coordinator, for Western.

Prison Ministry 2019

Doug Sandvig, KM

Much of Christian ministry involves working in groups. This is especially true in prison ministry; 2019 was a year of strengthening our relationships with our many valuable partners.

The North American Prison Ministry Apostolate consists of the American, Canadian, Federal and Western associations cooperating to serve the needs of the incarcerated. In 2019 we prepared phase I of our strategic plan. An important part of the plan is to raise the awareness of, and participation in, prison ministry. There are visible signs that these efforts are bearing fruit.

Tan Books of Charlotte, North Carolina, has been the cornerstone of our efforts to provide Catholic Bibles and prayer books inside the walls. In 2019 they delivered 2,444 Bibles, 1,318 prayer books, and Rosary cards to 34 institutions. The materials were provided in both English and Spanish. Since we started working with Tan Books, they have provided more than 15,000 Bibles and more than 8,000 prayer books.

We are one of the initial partners of the Catholic Prison Ministry Coalition, which brings under one umbrella numerous organizations that provide training, certification, resources, advocacy and restorative justice. The coalition strives to create a more just and merciful criminal justice system closely aligned with the ministry and teaching of the Church and the example of Pope Francis.

Most of our members who participate in prison ministry do so with the Pen Pal Program, which enables them to have a sustained encounter with a particular inmate while keeping one's identity and address confidential. In 2019 we received a tremendous boost from Catholic Distance University and The Serving Brother. Each published some information about the pen pal program, advising inmates on how to get a pen pal from us.

Those publications helped us overcome one of the big challenges in a Pen Pal Program-- identifying those inside the walls who want a pen pal and providing them a means to opt into the program. We found ourselves with more "customers" than we could serve.

We reached out to a number of partners to help us find more writers, and we were blessed with a great response from the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, The National Association of Catholic Women, Holy Trinity Parish in Washington, DC, and Georgetown University.

The year also saw growth and improvement in the Holiday Greeting Program. This is well suited to those who are willing to write someone inside the walls, but do not want a sustained relationship. We changed the name to "The Holiday Greeting Program" because while some units allow Christmas cards or birthday cards, many do not. The large volume of returned mail caused us to switch to holiday greetings rather than cards.

The depth and breadth of participation at the regional level continues to grow. A recent survey reveals that almost all regions have some level of participation in prison ministry. Most participate through pen pals and holiday greetings. Also, more of our members are going inside prisons and jails. We support a number of initiatives and programs and provide materials inside the walls, assist Gatekeepers in a successful re-entry program in Maryland, and have members contributing Catholic books to library projects in prisons and jails.

Perhaps most important, prayers for those inside the walls are being raised more often in our regional Masses and in the daily devotions of our members.

Grants 2019

Don Patteson, KM, Grants Committee Chair

These words from the Parable of the Talents in Matthew's Gospel are the words we all long to hear when we finally come before the Lord: "Well done my good and faithful servant. . . . Come, share your master's joy." (Mt. 25:21). By God's grace, we have been called to the Order of Malta, called to serve the sick and poor in meaningful and tangible ways. What a blessing we enjoy as members of the Grants Committee to support you in your regional projects. Every grant application we receive is evidence of your attempts to be good stewards and humble servants. Thank you for making it possible for our committee to serve you by prudently sending your treasure back to your communities for the needs of others.

In 2018, the Federal Association membership donated almost $800,000 in response to the Annual Stewardship Appeal. Of that the Board of Directors made $275,000 available for domestic and international grants in 2019. The Grants Committee received 13 applications to support local projects. The board accepted the committee's recommendations and approved grants totaling $225,000 from available funds in 2019. As in prior years, all unallocated funding carries over to subsequent years. Should you have an interest in the Grants Committee recommendations and actions taken by the board, you may read about them on the Federal Association website in the minutes of the August 2019 Board of Directors meeting.

Each year it is heartwarming to review the grant applications sponsored by our members; each and every one of the applications is for a good and worthwhile cause. The committee's job is to recommend for approval every application that meets our guidelines and for which we have funding available. We take our fiduciary responsibility to you and the board very seriously, but we also try in all cases to find a way to get to a yes.

People who are attracted to the Order of Malta are already giving generously to those in need. Often this involvement takes the form of regular and substantial financial support and sometimes service on the board of a charitable organization. The most common way an application fails to meet our guidelines is in the misunderstanding that serving on the board of the applicant meets the requirement for hands-on service with the applicant. As stated in this report last year: ". . . we give priority to grant applications from programs and ministries in which our members are deeply involved as volunteers directly serving the sick and the poor. This policy has a two-fold benefit. First it strongly supports those local organizations that provide us with opportunities to fulfill our charism of serving the sick and the poor. And second it encourages our members to find ways to be hands on in ministries they care about so the organization or program may qualify for a significant grant."

Once again in 2019, grants were approved for a variety of wonderful projects. For example, our new region in Oklahoma received a grant of $15,000 in seed money for their first signature project, Coats for the Homeless. They committed to—and did—raise $40,000 to purchase and distribute new winter coats for the homeless in the Oklahoma City area. They plan to do this each year and expect this project to become sustained by local funding going forward.

As another example, the Houston Region's well-established signature project, the Mamie George Monthly Food Fair, needed equipment to streamline the handling of bulk food donations and the associated packaging. More than 20 Houston Region members show up each month to provide food for 300 families in need.

Our members in the Arlington Region are actively involved with Catholic Charities in providing services, food and other basic needs to people in impoverished areas. They obtained a grant to expand their services in their Mobile Response Center, with a truck to take help to the poor communities, instead of recipients having to travel long distances to get the help they need.

Room at the Inn, a program in the Charlotte Region that serves single mothers with children, sought seed funding to fund scholarships for the mothers and professional driver training.

And through your generous donations, St. Ann's Center for Children, Youth and Families in a rural area outside of Baltimore was able to purchase a backup generator needed to provide power during all-too-frequent and dangerous power outages in the area.

Our grants often go to major renovation or repair projects like the one made to the St. Joseph's House for Women in Syracuse, New York. The Syracuse Region is very active with the St. Joseph's House whose driveway had seriously deteriorated and become unsafe. This was a major expense for that operation that we were able to fund.

Similarly, the San Jose Apartments, a Catholic Charities housing project for needy seniors in Jacksonville, Florida, needed a small amount of money to dismantle and replace a lakeside gazebo that had fallen into disrepair and was declared unsafe. The grant of less than $5,000 brought joy to residents who had used the old gazebo extensively.

On behalf of all the members of the Grants Committee, thank you for the joy and honor of cooperating with you to provide financial support to those local projects to which you so generously give your time, talent and treasure. Well done, all you good and faithful servants.

Our Lady of Good Help Pilgrimage

August 1–4, 2019 Kate Signorelli, DMOB

Members of the Order from all three associations in the U.S. bring their families, friends, and the sick to Our Lady of Good Help to share the experience of grace and healing. After six years of leading the pilgrimage, the Federal Association will hand over leadership this year to the American Association. Their three-year term will end with the 2022 pilgrimage, and the Western Association will take over for the next three years.

Last year's pilgrimage began on a Thursday afternoon with the opening Mass celebrated by Bishop David L. Ricken, ordinary of the Green Bay Diocese and a chaplain of the Order, at St. Francis Xavier Cathedral, which is a short walk from the Hyatt Hotel where pilgrims stay.

Over Friday and Saturday, the group of more than 250 pilgrims attended Masses at the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help and participated in a Rosary procession, Stations of the Cross, and a healing service with Adoration. There was a blessing of all married couples at Mass on Saturday morning, with 46 special pilgrims (the sick) receiving the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick at the Shrine of St. Joseph.

Devotions at the shrine arise from a series of apparitions to a young woman, Adele Briesie, in 1859. The Blessed Mother told her: "Go and teach the children of this wild country what they need to know for salvation. Teach them the Sign of the Cross, and how to approach the Sacraments." When Adele said yes, it was with trepidation as to her worthiness to carry out such a great task. The Blessed Mother assured her, saying, "Go, fear nothing. I will help you."

In further response to this message, our pilgrimage now includes a program for the children. Last year, all those ages 8 to 18 were invited to catechetical training.

FitzGerald-Callaghan Lourdes Endowment Trust Supporters

To support the signature work of our worldwide Order, the Federal Association started the Lourdes Endowment Fund with a very generous gift Admiral William Callaghan and his wife Elizabeth in 2013. The Lourdes Endowment Fund provides an opportunity for our entire Association, even those who cannot attend the pilgrimage, to participate in the care of our beloved Malades. The fund supports the participation of our Federal Association-sponsored Malades so that the charisma of our Order, to serve the poor and the sick, can continue for generations. As we work together to build the fund, we ensure the future spiritual fruits of the Order's pilgrimage to Lourdes not just for ourselves but also for those we have been called to serve.

The Blessed Gerard Society

The Blessed Gerard Society was established in 1998 as a way of recognizing the members of the Order who have included the Order of Malta in their will or other estate planning. In this manner, our Members ensure that the Federal Association will continue to perform the work of the Order. Knights and Dames have been sustaining the Order and its works in this manner for centuries, and it remains an important way of perpetuating the tradition, and more importantly, the noble work of the Order.
